

PROMPT

Sometimes animals are the character in stories. In the stories, the animals act and speak like people.

Think about a story that has an animal as a character. What does the animal do and say that makes it seem like a person?

Write to explain what the animal does and says that makes it seem like a person.