

PROMPT

You have the chance to be the first student astronaut to explore another planet.

Think about whether you would accept the job of being the first student astronaut.

Write to explain why you would or would not accept the job of being a student astronaut.

PROMPT

There are many different kinds of workers in our society. These workers do many things to make our community a better place.

Think about one type of worker. Think about how this work is important to your school, your community, or the country as a whole.

Write to explain how this work is important for you and your town, the school, or the country.

PROMPT

Many teachers allow their students to bring objects from home to share with the class for show and tell.

Think about what you would bring for show and tell.

Write to explain why you would bring this object for show and tell.

PROMPT

Most people like one particular animal more than others.

Think about your favorite animal.

Write to explain why this animal is your favorite animal.

PROMPT

Rules are important in our daily lives. We have rules for driving, rules for studying, and even rules for playing.

Think about the rules you have in your school. What three rules should every school have?

Write to explain the three rules you selected and why they are important.

PROMPT

Everyone has responsibilities.

Think about a responsibility you have now or will have in the future.

Write to explain a responsibility you have now or will have in the future.

PROMPT

Most adults in this world have a job of some sort.

Think of the job you would like to have when you complete your schooling. Now, think of three reasons why this would be your ideal job.

Write to explain why you would like to have this job.

PROMPT

Everyone has a book that he or she enjoyed reading, whether it be a book recently read or one read as a small child.

Think of one book you have read that you really enjoyed. Maybe it was your favorite book when you were little. Maybe it's one you read recently. Think of some reasons why you liked that book.

Now, write an essay explaining why you really like your favorite book.

PROMPT

Imagine that time travel to the past was possible.

Think of where and when you would like to go for a visit.

Write to explain where and when you would go in the past and explain why you choose to go there.

PROMPT

We all have a place where we can imagine or go where we relax, let our troubles disappear, and have a good time. For some it is a place far away, and for others it is a place close to home.

Think of your favorite place where you can feel an escape from the hassles of your world, a place you love to be, your favorite place.

Now, write an essay explaining why this place is your favorite.