

PROMPT

There are many different kinds of workers in our society. These workers do many things to make our community a better place.

Think about one type of worker. Think about how this work is important to your school, your community, or the country as a whole.

Write to explain how this work is important for you and your town, the school, or the country.